It is not clear how B. D. Madikeri naidu, the person proposed to be appointed guardian is related to the minor. The minor has clearly signified his wish to remain with his aunt Rayammaji and it is doubtful if it is right proper to separate him from her and hand him into the custody of one perhaps a stranger. The objection that a woman cannot supervise the education of the boy does not seem to be a very strong one and more especially is this the case with regard to Rayammaji who has had a fair share in the battle of life. She is now living with a grown up son and it is a question if she cannot be appointed guardian of at least the person of the minor. Mr B. D Madikeri naidu may in that case be appointed the guardian of the minor's properties.

Enclosures ten.

Sir,

Adverting to previous Correspondence ending with Government Proceedings No. 9301-2 S&A 156-06-9 dated 18th June 1907 sanctioning the appointment of Thippeswami Naik as guardian to Veera Madikere Naik, minor, Polleger of Chitaldroog and directing him to draw the pension on behalf of the aforesaid minor during his minority, I have the honor to state that Thayammaji, Sister of the late Devappa Naun, father of the minor, having complained to me against the mismanagement and other acts of ill-treatment of the minor by the guardian Thippeswami Naik, I forwarded the petitions &c to the Deputy Commissioner of Chitaldroog, with a request to be so good as to direct the Amildar of Chitaldroog to enquire into the matter personally with reference to the correctness or otherwise of the allegations contained in the statements made by Thayammaji and the Mahazars, and to forward the same with his opinion.

In the first instance Thayammaji applied that she may herself be appointed as the guardian of the minor who was then living with her and under her protection. But as the minor was about 14 years of age and his future education could not not be adequately supervised and attended to by a female guardian. I refused her application. But the Amildar of the Chitaldroog Taluk, Who, under the directions of the Deputy Commissioner, instituted a personal enquiry, corroborates the statements made by Thayamma in her previous Complaints against the Conduct of Thippeswamiah and recommends the appointment of one B. D. Madikere Naik, Polegar of Chitaldroog, a relative of the minor, in the place of the said Thippeswamiah. The Deputy Commissioner agrees with the decision arrived at by the Amilda

B. D. Madikere Naik appeared before me in person today and assured me that he would take all necessary steps for the proper education of the minor whom he had now taken under his own protection to

to recommend ~~that~~ in the place of Thippeswami Naik, B. D. Madi-Kere Naik, be appointed as guardian to the minor Veera Madikere Naik, Polleger of Chitaldroog, till he attains his majority.

The entire records relating to the above are herewith submitted for reference and return when no longer required.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient Servant.
